editor@heraldbanner.com or to:
Warren Morrison mmorrison@heraldbanner.com
Brad Kellar bkellar@heraldbanner.com
RICHARD CHERWITZ
A Texans’ View of Washington

How Democrats can soften blow of upcoming nomination battles

Beyond the 2020 election, this new practice might also establish a powerful precedent helping the parties to transcend the-vacillating and polarized political environment that currently paralyzes our democracy and makes it hard to govern effectively.

Richard Cherwitz is the Ernest S. & Marie Sharp Centennial Professor in the Moody College of Communication and founder of the Intellectual Entrepreneurship Consortium at the University of Texas at Austin.

The Herald-Banner welcomes your letter to the editor.
“We ask that it be kept to the point and, over long letters, subject to editing.
Letters through the mail should be sent to the Editor, The Herald-Banner, P.O. Box 6000, Greenville, TX 75401.
Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.

Letters Policy

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

The First Amendment: Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press.

Letters to the editor, excluding those for political candidates, may be submitted by fax at 903-455-4220.
Letters to the editor should not exceed 500 words.
All letters must contain a physical address and daytime phone number, although only names and hometown (if other than Greenville) will be published.